NAMASKARAM

Welcome to LEARN ME INVEST

Stepping ahead, understanding of money begin when we all have our aims, goals. Wants to achieve it we give the recognition as "Success".

What is actual Success to you ?

where you try to become something, which you are not is success. what you aim is all that which you don't have . Ultimately, you're always aiming something, holding your wants and goals to become that you forget, it's understanding of what you are making.

For your consideration !

when soil does not understand the purpose of water and sunlight, then soil don't understand its nature and possibility. when soil loses its understanding ,it cannot even accept a seed. The soil will never nurture the seed. This leads to the seed won't transform as tree. This consciousness of nature is present in soil. Accepting the nature ,a seed can transform into a tree, Habituates to grow .A systematic way of creating a transformation creates itself another.

what is my investment in stock market

I am stock market Well, I am not the way where you already have limitless conclusions on me. My knowing happened to you where you have seen various investments transactions. You have seen people buying & selling shares and equities to gain profits but what I am, has been left unexplored and no one attempted to understand me.

An individual who has high expectations, greed and piles of wants to gain quick profits will try to make me work in his ever changing strategies. Anyways, I [stock market] am never going to work based on strategies of innumerable profit chasers

You cannot understand me, where you leave wisdom behind and only aim for quick appreciation and profits. I am something which you should understand, that I am on your wisdom growth
